

Europe at a crossroad

Time to complete the European political unity

Friday, 16 June 2017

17.30-21.00

*Congreso de los Diputados
Sala Ernest Lluch
Calle de Floridablanca, S/N
E-28071, Madrid*

The Spinelli Group is promoting a cycle of debates in national capitals to discuss proposals on the main issues facing the European Union and emphasise the need to complete the European political project. After events in Brussels, Rome, Berlin and Warsaw, events are now planned in Madrid, Vienna, Budapest and Paris.

On 16 June 2017 the Spinelli Group will be visiting Madrid. On this occasion, the Spinelli Group will partner up with Elcano Royal Institute to invite Spanish political personalities to a public debate to discuss ideas on the transformations the EU will undergo in the coming years in order to meet current challenges and citizens' expectations, and in particular the perspective of closer political integration. The meeting will offer the occasion to examine and debate concrete proposals for the future of Europe from the recent White Paper of the European Commission, major resolutions adopted by the European Parliament this year and the road-map for the recasting of the Eurozone put forward by the Spanish Government.

The debates will be in Spanish and English, with interpretation.
