

The EU-Japan cooperation for a free and open international order: The EU-Japan partnership agreements

21st February 2019

Fundación Botín

(c/ Castelló no. 18 C, Madrid)

#EUJapanCooperation

10:00-10:15 Welcoming words

- Emilio Lamo de Espinosa, Chairman, Elcano Royal Institute
- Masashi Mizukami, Ambassador of Japan in Spain

10:15-11:45 Session 1: Implications of the EU-Japan Economic Partnership Agreement for a Free, Open and Fair International Trade and Economic Systems

Chair: José Luis Kaiser, Director General of International Trade and Investment, Ministry of Industry, Trade and Tourism

Speakers:

- Belén Romana, Non-executive Director, Santander Bank
- Gabriel Felbermayr, Director, IFO Center for International Economics.
- Miguel Otero, Senior Analyst, Elcano Royal Institute.
- Yukari Akeda, Lecturer, Rikkyo Law School.

11:45-12:15 Coffee break

12:15-13:45 Session 2: The EU-Japan Strategic Partnership Agreement and cooperation in the Free and Open Indo-Pacific region: answers to an uncertain geopolitical context

Chair: Alfonso García-Vaquero, Brigadier General, Senior Adviser, SEGENPOL

Speakers:

- Ken Hashiba, Senior Research Fellow, Nakasone Peace Institute
- Mario Esteban, Senior Analyst, Elcano Royal Institute
- Alice Ekman, Head of China Research, IFRI
- Axel Berkofsky, Co-head Asia Center, ISPI. Professor, University of Pavia

The event will be held in English without simultaneous translation